There once were two brothers:
A dog named Cain, and his younger brother, Abel.

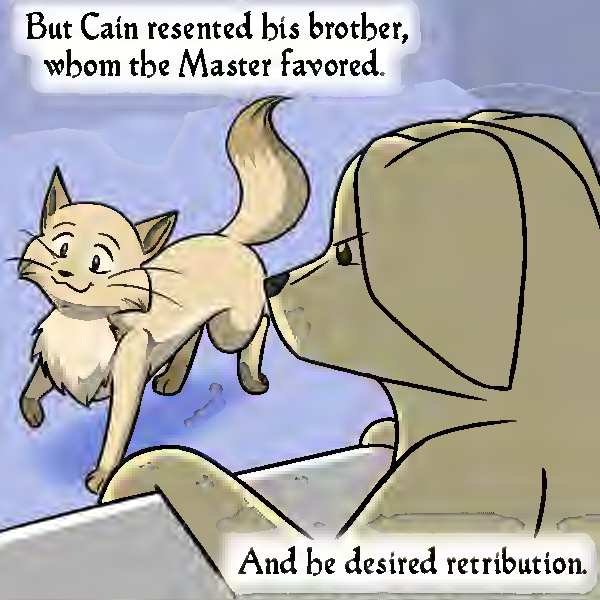
Now Abel kept flocks
while Cain worked the soil.

In the course of time, Cain brought some of the fruits of the soil as an offering to the Master.
And Abel also brought an offering—fat portions from the firstborn of his flock.

The Master looked with favor on Abel and his offering...
...but on Cain and his offering, he did not look with favor.

So Cain was very angry,
and his face was downcast.

Then the Master said to Cain,
"Why are you angry?"
"If you do what is right,
will you not be accepted?
Sin desires to have you,
but you must rule over it."



But Cain resented his brother, whom the Master favored.
And he desired retribution.

So Cain said to Abel,
"Come here, brother."
"There is something
I must show you."
